The First Sunday of Christmastide
Jazz in the Round

29 December 2019
Inspired by the bold and boundless hospitality of Jesus, we are “open to all,” which means we welcome and accept all people into the life of our Church without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, age, economic status, political affiliation, physical or mental capacity, or religious belief. We believe that God’s call is given to all people, and we embrace the Spirit that continues to cross boundaries in order to unite the world.

Childcare is available for children ages birth to four years. Please meet our childcare staff at the rugs.

GATHERING

Silent Meditation
“...It is impossible to survey all of the numerous draconic figures in pagan literature. Certain characteristics are shared by these draconic creatures: the desire for kingship, the association with the forces of chaos, and a vicious and evil countenance... . When the author of Revelation introduces a violent, seven-headed dragon to his readers, he did so to create a sober awareness that their opposition was legendary. In fact, the troubles which they faced were the result of an age-old cosmic battle which would ultimately end in their favor. But they must persevere, confident that ‘the God of peace will soon crush Satan,’ the dragon, under their feet (Rom. 16:20).”

-Ivan M. Benson, Revelation 12 and the Dragon of Antiquity

“Revelation 12 does not completely preclude the equation of the woman with Mary. For instance, the persecution of the woman and her child reminds one of the holy family fleeing into Egypt to escape the wrath of Herod. ... However, the author of Revelation probably does not intend for the woman in chapter 12 to be equated primarily with the biological mother of Jesus [as] the events... do not fit what happened at Bethlehem.”

-Joy A. Schroeder, Revelation 12: Female Figures and Figures of Evil

“We are Christmas, We are God’s hands
To care for one another in these worn torn lands.
We are Christmas, the love that we share,
Will carry one another ‘til we understand,
We are Christmas.”

-Excerpt from We Are Christmas, by Sarah Stephens and Kevin Johnson, Spelman Glee Club

Gathering Song

“Mary’s Little Boy Child”

Jester Hairston (1901-2000)

Long time ago in Bethlehem so the holy Bible say Mary's boy child Jesus Christ was born on Christmas day.

Hark now hear the angels sing a new king's born today
and man will live forvermore because of Christmas day.

While shepherds watch their flock by night they saw a bright new shining star and heard a choir from Heaven sing the music came from afar.

Hark now hear the angels sing a new king's born today
and man will live forvermore because of Christmas day.

Now Joseph and his wife Mary came to Bethlehem that night;
they found no place to bear her child, not a single room was in sight.

By and by they find a little nook In a stable all forlorn and in a manger cold and dark Mary's little boy child was born.

Trumpets sound and angels sing listen what they say that man will live forvermore because of Christmas day.
Call to Worship

Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.

*Opening Sentences

Leader: We come to glorify God,
to rejoice in the One who saves us.
People: God came, so we might believe,
so we might be blessed.
Leader: Our hearts leap for joy!
For God came, to us in a child.
People: God came, for those who hunger for hope,
for those who thirst for grace.
Leader: Holy is the One who came, in God's name, who fulfills every promise of God.
People: God came, to walk with those who follow in faith,
to bring peace to a shattered world.

*Opening Song

“O Come All Ye Faithful”

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem!
Come and behold him, born the king of angels!
O come, let us adore him, O come let us adore him,
O come let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning,
Jesus, to thee be all glory given;
word of the Father, now in flesh appearing!
O come, let us adore him, O come let us adore him,
O come let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation!
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above!
Glory to God, all glory in the highest!
O come, let us adore him, O come let us adore him,
O come let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

*Prayer of Invocation

CONFESSION AND RECEIVING FORGIVENESS

Invitation to Silent Confession

Dr. Matt Caine

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, we know that the blank slate of a new year seems so promising;
and we know that the blank slate of a new year is also an illusion.
Time continues, and our lives flow from one day to the next, from one year to the next.
In this time, we know we are sometimes loving and generous, bearing light to the shadows, and we know we are sometimes less than what we wish we were.
We invite you on our journeys, O God.
We seek your presence with us in both the darkness and the light.
In our better moments and those where we fall short,
we seek your presence, always. Amen.
Assurance of Forgiveness
Leader: Friends, hear this good news. Truly, God can do what we cannot.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and set free.

*Passing of the Peace

Children ages 3 through 6 may leave with childcare staff and be picked up in Room 108 following worship. Children in 1st - 5th grades will be remain in worship today.

Welcome of our Guests

If you are our guest today, please text “guest” to 474747 or fill out a guest card and place it in the offering plate during worship as your gift to us.

HEARING AND PROCLAIMING THE WORD

Epistle Reading - Revelation 12:1-17 (NRSV) Rev. Debra L. Grosch

A great portent appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pangs, in the agony of giving birth. Then another portent appeared in heaven: a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and threw them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to bear a child, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born. And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. But her child was snatched away and taken to God and to his throne; and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, so that there she can be nourished for one thousand two hundred sixty days.

And war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, but they were defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, proclaiming, "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah, for the accuser of our comrades has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. But they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they did not cling to life even in the face of death. Rejoice then, you heavens and those who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"

So when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle, so that she could fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to her place where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. Then from his mouth the serpent poured water like a river after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood. But the earth came to the help of the woman; it opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth. Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of her children, those who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus.
Leader: For the Word of God in scripture,
for the Word of God among us,
for the Word of God within us.

People: Thanks be to God.

*Congregational Song
“Angels We Have Heard on High”
Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o’er the plains, and the mountains in reply, echoing their joyous strains.
Gloria, in excelsis Deo; gloria, in excelsis Deo.

Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why your joyous strains prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be which inspire your heavenly song?
Gloria, in excelsis Deo; gloria, in excelsis Deo.

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn king.
Gloria, in excelsis Deo; gloria, in excelsis Deo.

See him in a manger laid, whom the choirs of angels praise;
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid, while our hearts in love we raise.
Gloria, in excelsis Deo; gloria, in excelsis Deo.

Sermon
“The Year of the Dragon”

Musical Reflection
“Mary Don’t You Weep”
Oh Mary, don’t you weep, don’t you mourn.
Oh Mary, don’t you weep, don’t you mourn.
Pharaoh’s army got drownded; oh Mary don’t you weep.

If I could I surely would stand on the rock where Moses stood . . .

Mary wore three links of chain, every link was Jesus’ name...

One of these nights about 12 o’ clock this old worlds going to reel and rock . . .

God told Moses what to do to lead the Hebrew children through . . .

Moses stood on the red sea shore smotin’ the water with a two by four . . .

God gave Moses the rainbow sign: no more water, but fire next time . . .

Mary wore three links of chain; every link was freedom’s name . . .

The very moment I thought I was lost, the dungeon shook and the chains fell off . . .

I may be right and I may be wrong; I know you’re gonna miss me when I am gone . . .
RESPONDING TO THE WORD

Prayers for the People
Rev. Leigh Anne Hagerman

The Lord’s Prayer
Our God in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*Sending Forth Song

“Go Tell It On the Mountain”

GO TELL IT ON THE MOUNTAIN

Refrain:
Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere,
Go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born.

While shepherds kept their watching o’er silent flocks by night,
Behold throughout the heavens there shone a holy light. Refrain.

The shepherds feared and trembled when Lo! Above the earth rang out the angel chorus that hailed our savior’s birth. Refrain.

Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born,
And God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn. Refrain.

Following worship, children ages 3 through 6 may be picked up in Room 108.

THEOLOGY OF WORSHIP

Why do we worship?
Worship at Myers Park Baptist is the gathering of a diverse, intergenerational, ecumenical community of faith, celebrating God’s active and timeless presence in the world. In worship, God re-forms our hearts, minds and bodies, and ignites our imaginations with sacred stories—stories that invite us to question, explore mystery, express joy and grief, and deepen our faith. We worship to learn how to develop caring, empowering relationships with each other, and to stay centered in God as the world swirls around us. We worship to be inspired and prepared to exemplify the compassion and justice of Jesus in our church family and in the world. Through worship, God frees and transforms us in heart, mind and body, so we can make a difference within ourselves, in our relationships and in our community.

How do we worship?
Focusing on God, worship at Myers Park Baptist unfolds consistently with the Isaiah 6 scriptural model: praise, confession, pardon, calling to respond, commitment and sending out. All our worship services are built on this ancient structural form, regardless of worship style, venue or theme. Communal practices within worship — radical hospitality, confession and assurance of pardon, passing the peace, silence and listening, spirited hymn singing, presentations of gifts, and active participation in Communion—transform worshipers into newness with God and one another. Themes for services, based on lectionary scriptures, annually portray the narrative arc of God’s redeeming love for humankind.

FEARLESS GENEROSITY
FINISH STRONG

MPBC is a bold, dynamic church striving to make a difference in the lives of our members and our community. But we can’t do it alone. We need your help in keeping our tradition going strong.
From nurturing our littlest ones to know that God loves them, to helping our youth discover their gifts and navigate a difficult world, to helping our adults deal with the transitions and complexities of life... we are here to make ourselves, our community, and our world better. The financial gifts we offer to God through Myers Park Baptist are what makes our impact so far-reaching. Every gift makes a difference. To ensure we finish the year strong, fulfill our financial commitments, and ensure a strong start to 2020, consider how you can help - by fulfilling your pledge, and perhaps increasing your generosity as we look toward the close of the year. It’s not too late to make a stock gift, finish your 2019 financial commitment, or prepay one for 2020 in time to get a 2019 tax deduction. Checks must be postmarked December 31 and received in the Finance Office by January 10. Stock gifts must be communicated to our office by December 30. To make a stock gift, call us at 704.334.7234 or make a gift via credit card through our website.

LET'S MAKE HISTORY
TOGETHER FOR MPBC!

Everyone can take part in spreading our message.

We need your help to spread the word about our new marketing campaign. Our goal is to start a conversation about our church’s identity that reframes how people think about what it means to be a Baptist, a church, and a religious community in Myers Park. Our members and friends will always be our best advertisers and marketers. Statistics show that even in our highly technological world, word of mouth remains the most powerful tool for church growth. Please support our new campaign by sharing the messages from our Facebook page on your own social media. Join us in spreading the excitement about our church with the community and help us make history.
Every Monday and Saturday night, December through March, we host 14 of our homeless neighbors: men, women, children and/or families. Volunteers set up and make beds, drive the church van with our neighbors to and from the Urban Ministry Center, make/serve/share an evening meal, serve as overnight hosts, make sack lunches and provide hospitality for those who have no place to call home. Learn more and volunteer through our website.

What is Advent?
What are the colors of the candles mean?
Why are the scriptures in the lectionary so daunting?
Aren’t we supposed be talking about the birth of Jesus?

Join Rev. Ben Boswell, Mia McClain, and Rev. Carrie Veal as they explore this sacred time of Advent amidst the commercialized Christmas chaos. They’ll be putting pop culture references in conversation with the revelatory lectionary passages that hint at a different kind of hope free from the fetters of end-of-the-year sales and obsessive gift-giving. In this dialogue, they hope to carve out a truer meaning of Christmas at what feels like the end of the world. All 3 episodes of this series plus a bonus episode are available on our website and iTunes.

Music, laughter and snow? This January, youth in grades 6-12 will retreat to the Kanuga Conference Center in the North Carolina mountains for a fun weekend of community building as we share and learn together. We will have small and large group sessions with plenty of free time throughout. All youth are encouraged to attend. Scholarships are available if needed. Contact Allen Davis for more details. The cost is $200 | discount available if you sign up for the Church-Wide Retreat, as well. Register through our website.

When we went on our retreat in 2018, we were unsure what we should expect. And then any and all expectations were exceeded. Why? Because of those who were there! We were able to break away from our lives. We were able to watch children play, sit with adults and talk, and so much more. Some went hiking; some took a nap; some went into town to explore. Whatever you wanted to do, you could!

As we are putting this year’s retreat together, we have a team who will be working together to make the 2020 retreat an even better experience. And we would love to hear from you! Let us know about activities you would like. Share an idea for our community play night. Offer your gift of music or worship leading. Maybe you want to give towards our scholarship fund. Whatever it might be, let us know. You can email Rev. Carrie Veal and she will pass along whatever you have to share. Registration is available through our website and we hope you will sign up soon!

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

MISSIONARY ROUNDTABLE
Researching the Need
Responding to the Need
Each Christmas, Missionary Roundtable supports agencies that need help in providing members of our community with fundamental items. This year they collected books and games for Greater Enrichment Program, an after-school program that touches over 500 children in kindergarten through 5th grade. They also collected food and household supplies for Gracious Hands, a ministry that supports homeless women and children by providing them a place to live while building life skills and finding stable employment, leading to stable housing.

This group is welcoming new members. They meet the second Monday of each month at 10:30 in the Parlor. Please contact Jill Kinney Weaver or Gretchen Allen gretnet@gmail.com Learn more through our website.

Our Columbarium has been at full capacity for several years. In our desire to be able to offer our church community a final resting place, the Board of Deacons recently approved a construction project which will expand our Columbarium by 204 niches, or spaces. We expect construction to begin in the spring, but would like to offer the opportunity to purchase a niche now to reserve a spot. The cost is $2,500 per niche. One niche can hold the remains of two persons. To reserve a spot, please call or email Leigh Anne Hagerman (704.334.7232 x 116 | lhagerman@myersparkbaptist.org).

FIRST MONDAYS AT 5:00P

HANG OUT WITH THE PASTOR

Monday, January 6 | 5:00p | The Common Market South End

Our monthly hang outs will continue into the new year. We gather on the first Monday of each month at 5:00p at The Common Market in South End at 235 W. Tremont Avenue. All are invited to this casual time of fellowship! Bring the family, bring your appetite, or just come and hang out. There is something for everyone. We hope to see you there.

CONGREGATIONAL INFORMATION

All of us at MPBC, Cornwell Center and TTWS wish you a healthy & happy new year

Holiday Closings

- The Church Office will close at noon on Tuesday, December 31 and will be closed Wednesday, January 1, 2020.
- The Cornwell Center will close at 5:00p on Tuesday, December 31 and will be closed Wednesday, January 1, 2020.
- Through-The-Week School will be closed through Friday, January 3, 2020.
Following the death of a family member or friend, grief is something we cannot escape. When the loss sinks in, we do not know what to do. Grief affects every part of us, and we all grieve in different ways at different times. Though there is not simply one way to deal with our grief, being a part of a caring group of people who are also experiencing grief can help us realize we are not alone. If you are interested in being a part of a Grief Support Group, please contact Rev. Joe Aldrich. Meeting dates and times to be determined.

Unveiling Empire: A Study of The Revelation to John | An Awakening Bible Study
| Starting January 8 | 5:00p |
Who wrote the Book of Revelation and when? Is it about the end of the world? What's with all the dragons and sea monsters?
Your knowledge of the Book of Revelation may come from the early 90s rapture-focused series Left Behind, or films like Armageddon and I Am Legend. You may not have flipped through the book in a long time, if ever! Well, come dive into this fascinating apocalyptic letter penned by John of Patmos! Learn about the history, the context, and how John's imagery might speak to our current ecological, political, and economical crisis. You won't want to miss this! Wednesdays from 5-6p.

Dinner
Wednesday nights have been so amazing and we want to keep it that way! We will be offering meals from Creative Catering, Tin Kitchen and more. In order to provide these delicious offerings we will need to increase the cost of our adult meals to $10.00/person. Kids are still $5 and there is a family max of $30. We encourage you to sign up for a month at time to be sure you name is on the list. Visit the church's website to learn more! Registration is available now through myMPBC.

OUR COVENANT

We, the members of the Myers Park Baptist Church, are a people on a journey of faith. By God’s grace we are experiencing God’s love through Jesus Christ and in the community of the faithful. We are discovering in this experience our freedom to become new creatures and our responsibility to be faithful stewards of our lives and of this world.

We will be open to all new light, strengthened by God and each other in our faith. We will sustain a critical examination of Scripture, belief and ritual as interpreters of God’s active presence in the world. We will accept controversy as a reality of life together and an opportunity for growth toward maturity. We covenant to be a community of God’s new creation and affirm that we are open to all and closed to none.

We covenant to nurture this Church as a community of faith and as an instrument for reconciliation in this world: by worship, by Christian education, by the dedication of our personal and material resources and by all the other ways we express the significance of our lives with God and one another.

We covenant together to be priests celebrating God’s presence in community and in the world, believing we are participants in God’s kingdom on earth.
